

Gwen Dugan Morris Memorial Scholarship for the LHS Marching Band

DEADLINE: March 10, 2023 2023 SCHOLARSHIP: $1,000

Gwen Dugan Morris graduated from Lexington High School in 1989 where she passionately participated in the LHS Marching Band all four years of her high school career. She left her hometown of Lexington to attend the University of South Carolina on a vocal music scholarship, yet ended up earning a degree in Business Administration. However, her enthusiasm and love for music remained strong.

As a parent of Lexington District One students, Gwen served in many volunteer roles and was a particularly passionate supporter of the Lexington High School Cat Band Booster Club. Gwen served as the Concessions Chairperson and was elected as the Booster Club President from 2018 through 2020. Music was always a big part of her life whether playing in Band, singing, or supporting her children. She even got her husband, Zane, involved when their youngest daughter became a part of the LHS Marching Band.

This scholarship is named in memory of Gwen and honors her passion and love for the LHS Marching Band. It was created by her family – husband, Zane, and daughters, Savannah and Chloe - as well as many friends who loved Gwen and helped to make it a wonderful legacy to Gwen's life.

Scholarship Criteria & Selection Process

In remembering Gwen, this scholarship will be awarded to an individual who shares her love and commitment to the Lexington High School Bands.
